

Schenectady County Public Library (SCPL) Long Range Plan of Service 2016 - 2019

The Schenectady County Public Library System (SCPL) serves a population of 154,604 (2015) with the Central Library and 3 branches in the city of Schenectady as well as branches in the communities of Duaneburg, Glenville, Niskayuna, Rotterdam, and Scotia. Chartered as a municipal library, funding is provided through the Schenectady County Legislative budget. The Friends of the SCPL provide funding for enhancements to the library in the areas of resources, programming, and facilities. Successful grants and donations add to library financials.

In 2015, the SCPL Board of Trustees Planning committee began to draft a long range plan of service. As part of this process a community meeting was held in June, 2015 which provided stakeholders with an opportunity to list and discuss the library system's strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats. The information gathered at this community meeting is reflected in the plan of service and will be incorporated into a tactical plan that will be developed to address and meet each goal.
