McChesney Room Use Application

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY:

The McChesney Room at the Hon. Karen B. Johnson Central Library is available for a variety of social, cultural, and educational activities, along with discussions of current public questions. Use of the room is free of charge for non-profit groups; all other groups will be charged $100 for up to a three-hour rental. Payment must be made prior to scheduled event; checks should be made payable to "Schenectady County Public Library." It is available on equal terms to all groups in the community, regardless of the beliefs and affiliations of their members, provided that the meetings are open to the public. Priority is given to library sponsored programming.

No charge shall be made for admission to any meeting and no collection shall be taken up; dues may not be collected either. Use of the room is limited to three meetings per calendar year for any organization. Events cannot be scheduled more than two months in advance of the meeting date.

Groups or individuals using the piano in the McChesney Room will pay for its tuning, should they feel this service necessary. Piano must be covered and returned to its original location at the conclusion of the program.

Light refreshments requiring no cooking may be served. If kitchenette is used, counters must be wiped and no food left in the refrigerator. Smoking/vaping is prohibited inside and within 100 feet of our buildings. Alcoholic consumables and open flames, such as candles, are not permitted. The McChesney Room and facilities will be left clean and in good order. The organization will be responsible for any damage to library property. Groups must vacate the McChesney Room 15 minutes before the library closes. The library will not be responsible for any loss or damage to supplies or equipment belonging to the organization. Organization's supplies or equipment are not permitted to be stored at the Library between meetings.
