

4.1.9 Memorial Gifts

The Library often receives, from an individual or an organization, a gift of library materials or a sum of money for the purchase of materials in memory of or in honor of another person. Library selection standards apply. All gifts of this type should be referred to the coordinating librarian.